

Iowa Children's Choice Award Battle of the Books

Pleasant View students in 4th-6th grade are invited to participate in a Battle of the Books style competition. Using the Iowa Children's Choice Award list, teams of students will have the opportunity to compete in a local, district, and regional event. Here's how:

- Students form teams of three. Team members may be any combination of 4th, 5th, or 6th grade Pleasant View students. (Mrs. Anderson will help you find team members if needed.)
- Local Competition: Registered teams will compete in a Pleasant View battle. This round will be 25 written questions and take place on February 23rd during the school day.
- District Competition: The top two teams representing Pleasant View will compete with the top two teams from Riverdale Heights and Hopewell. This trivia style round of competition will be held at Bettendorf Public Library on March 5th 5:00 pm-7:00 pm.
- Regional Competition: The top team from the PV District Battle will compete with teams from North Scott, Davenport, Durant, Walcott, Bettendorf, West Liberty, and Calamus-Wheatland schools. The Eastern Iowa Battle of the Books Final is scheduled for April 7th 10:00-12:00 am at Davenport Eastern Library.
